SOMMELIER selection

CREAMY & COMPLEX

Cape Blend, "Cyclus", Avondale Estate, 2018

£110

A bold yet beautifully balanced white blend that showcases the estate's commitment to organic and biodynamic winemaking. A fusion of Chenin Blanc, Roussanne, Viognier, Semillon, and Chardonnay, this wine delivers an opulent palate of ripe pear, peach, and citrus, layered with floral notes, honeyed spice, and a subtle nutty richness.

MINERAL & FRESH

Lugana Riserva 'Il Bepi', La Rifra, Lombardy, Italy, 2019

£90

A refined expression of the Turbiana grape, the region's signature varietal. This elegant white wine offers a rich and layered palate, with ripe stone fruits, citrus zest, and delicate floral notes, complemented by hints of almond and a subtle minerality. .

BOLD & SPICY

Geyserville Springs, Ridge Vineyard, California, U.S.A, 2015

£180

Rich, full bodied, bold. Our Executive Chef, Simon loves a wine that packs a punch, but is still elegant enough to match with food - this certainly fits the bill.

RICH & TIMELESS

Malvasia, D'Oliveiras, Madeira, Portugal, 1991

£240

For those who have never had the pleasure, Madeira is simply fantastic. Aged for decades, this wine is sweet and refreshing in equal measure with flavour to back it up - creamt, nutty, salted caramel, toffee apple.

A 12.5% discretionary service charge will be added to your bill.*

English Sparkling

English sparkling wine has rapidly gained a reputation as a world-class contender in the sparkling wine market, often rivaling Champagne in quality and prestige.

Its growing popularity stems from England's unique chalky soils, cool climate, and increasingly refined winemaking expertise, which together create wines with exceptional freshness, elegance, and complexity.

Produced primarily using the traditional method - the same technique used in Champagne. English sparkling wine undergoes secondary fermentation in the bottle, resulting in fine bubbles and rich flavours.

With international awards stacking up and a rising focus on sustainable viticulture, English sparkling wine is now celebrated as a symbol of British craftsmanship and luxury.
